Dear Miss Sawyer:

I was very glad reading in your letter the praises
about Kathleen Parlow, my beloved child in
music!

In account to her.

Holding, I enclose
the conditions regarding lessons this summer.

Would You, please,
make the arrangements
with my Dresden - Agent,
as soon as possible
and fix the number of lessons Mr. Holding wants to take. —

Believe me Your
most sincerely
L. Auer

S. Petersburg, 24/March 26, English Prospect. 912.

My dear Kathleen:

I shall not repeat in telling you all the pleasure your letters give to me. —

With the last I had too one of your messages, Miss Sawyer full of praises on your account!

Now, to answer your questions. —

1.) Do not bother your about my transcription

of dear Lowell. - After You arrived in Dresden, You give it me back.

2. I enclose my Memorandum Conditions for the Concert meister <sup>Manues</sup> and the Rosen Frey Boy; but please,
tell them to make haste,
I am afraid, in spite
I did not advertise any where, soon I shall not have the possibility to accept any one for Dresden. -

Hüzdö has already written to me! that means Manues No 2, 2.2.

For your new repertoire
I should suggest:

Vivace tempo Concerto No 4
(L. Minion)

Amer Edition at Augener London.

The Elgar Concerto, for England - and America.

The Door! still, or nice Concerto to play a third season in America and the third Concert in an European City!

Some of the Kreisler Pieces are charming.
a new Chopin Nocturne (G minor) transcription by Auer (new) at Zimmernsamm's. same thing grand! not the Transcription!

II

In Dresden I shall
leave in Loschwitz, Malerstrasse, 1. on the Hill, surrounded by forests, charming, 20 minutes
by Tramway from town.
F. Ries, the Musicshop, will give you all the topographic particulars to find you a Pension in the right corner.
Mrs. Stein will be there;
she asked to give you
and mother her love.
Though I work terribly hard, I feel well; sometimes a little much tired. —

I have now a boy of 11 years, a wonder, not a Wunderkind! —

Perhaps I shall let come him out in Autumn.

Polishine does not go as I expected;

He is, unfortunately without a father here!

Still a father or a mother for such children, that is Life Insurance for them.

Nicola Tomas is getting on not badly, but very slowly! Mrs. Russell, charming; helps to work the girl, I think. —

For your Sonnet Recital, you are to have a Prize
with a bigger name as Causolo! I do not speak about his playing having never heard him;
but Public is going for name.

Now, my dear child, I wish You to keep strong till the end of Your season and arrive in good health in Dresden with Mrs. Parlow; ~~to her~~ give her, please,
all my sympathy and best kisses of which I send You heaps;

L. Auer

I shall be in Dresden end of May.
